

FORT WORTH, TEXAS STAR-TELEGRAM

m. 106,967

S. 211,467

Front Edit Other
Page Page Page

Date: MAR 21 1964

DAR Urges Thorough Probe of Security Risks

The state convention of Daughters of the American Revolution held its final business session here Friday, adopting a resolution urging a thorough congressional investigation of the State Department and Central Intelligence Agency.

The resolution stated that the investigation should have "special emphasis on possible security risks affecting the welfare of our great nation."

Other resolutions passed asked DAR members to help retain Texas' Communist control act; oppose any effort to abridge the right of citizens to keep and bear firearms; oppose the practice of the United States selling essential product to Communist nations, and support the principle of freedom of information.

Also, to oppose any agreement that would weaken American sovereignty of abridge the present treaties governing occupation and operation of the Canal Zone and Guantanamo Naval Base in Cuba; oppose nonstop commercial flights by Soviet planes between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Mrs. Walter G. Dick of Columbus was elected state regent Friday. Mrs. Dick, an active DAR member for more than 30 years, has held numerous national and state offices. She is a member of the Columbus library board; trustee of the Columbus Hospital Foundation and a director of the Columbus State Bank.

Other new officers are vice state regent, Mrs. Buck Wynne Wooley of Dallas; state chaplain, Mrs. Lee M. Blake of Dallas; state recording secretary, Mrs. F. H. Pannill of Midland; state corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. Green Evans of El Paso, and state treasurer, Mrs. Georgia Edman of Houston.

Mrs. Charles Bradford of Dallas was presented the Junior DAR award as the outstanding Junior DAR member in Texas.